

RELEASE

As a condition of my participation, or my/our minor child's participation, in athletic or recreational activities conducted on a parcel of ground owned by South Coventry Township, Chester County Tax Parcel UPI No. 20-4-162, (the "Property"), I acknowledge and agree that South Coventry Township, (the "Township"), is not responsible for the administration of such activities or the condition of any athletic fields or other facilities on the Property. The Township makes no assurances about the condition of the Property or facilities thereon, and does not warrant the safety of the use of the Property or Facilities. I/we assume all risks associated with my or my/our minor child's use of these fields and facilities as well as all risks attendant to these activities. As a condition to the Township's permission to use the Property, I/we agree, for myself or for my/our minor children to waive and release any and all claims, actions, suits or demands which I may have against the Township due to any physical injury, property damage or other harm that I or my/our minor child may suffer or incur relating to or arising from the operation, administration or use of the athletic fields and related facilities on the Property, and/or any conditions in or on the Property, as well as from my or my/our child's participation in any such activities on the Property, hereby agreeing to indemnify and hold harmless the Township from such claims, actions, suits or demands.
